THE HONGKONG FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED.

NOTICE TO SHAREHOLDERS.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Eighteenth Ordinary Annual MEETING of the SHAREHOLDERS in the above-named Company will be held at the Company's Office situate in Puddar's Street, Victoria, in the Colony of Hongkong, on TUESDAY,
the 22nd day of February, 1887, at 12.30
of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive a Statement of Accounts to the 31st December, 1886, the Report of the General Managers, and a Statement of Account.

And NORRIS is hereby also given that at the same place and in the same hour at 12.45 o'clock in the Afternoon or so soon afterwards as the Ordinary Annual Meeting shall be concluded, an EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING of the Company will be held for the purpose of passing the subjoined Resolution.

Should the resolution be passed by the required majority it will be submitted for confirmation as a SPECIAL RESOLUTION to a SECOND EXTRAORDINARY MEETING which will be subsequently convened.

RESOLUTION.

That the Articles of Association be altered
in manner following:—

(a) The following Article shall be substituted
for Article No. III; namely:—

—The Reserve Fund shall consist of a sum of not less than $1,000,000 nor more than $1,500,000.

(b) The following Article shall be substituted
for Article No. 112, namely:—

—The Reserved Fund having now reached the sum of $1,000,000 the General Managers and the Consulting Committee may appropriate from time to time so much of the profits as they may deem desirable to the Reserve Fund until the said Fund shall amount to the sum of $1,000,000, provided that such annual appropriation shall not exceed 10 per cent. of the said profits.

(c) The following Article shall be substituted
for Article No. 115, namely:—

—The said Reserve Fund shall if practical be maintained at a sum of not less than $1,000,000 nor more than $1,500,000, and the whole of the future accruing profits of the Company shall be subject to such annual Bonus as aforesaid and less such portion or portions (if any) thereof (not exceeding in any year 30 per cent. of the profits of such year) as the General Managers may (as they are hereby empowered to do) apply in maintaining the Reserve Fund at a sum not less than $1,000,000 and less such other portion or portions (if any) thereof as may be required to be applied in increasing the said Reserve Fund under Article 112, to divisible amongst the Shareholders generally according to the number of Shares held by each.

THE CHINA MAIL.

No. 7325.—FEBRUARY 4, 1887.]

An ecclesiastic who has been in Peking for some time on a mission from Kwangtung and Szechuan has been leaving the Peiping staff and the French Legation pretty busy. He is charged to represent the case of the persecuted missionaries and Christians in the above two provinces, and more particularly that of a respectable Catholic household in Chungking, who is in danger of decapitation for killing some of the rebels who attacked his house. The missionaries are urging the French Minister to intervene in their behalf, and it is said he has the authority of his government to do so.—China Times.

The habit of squeezing is as universal in China that its practice is generally winked at by the high officials, even when they are themselves sufferers by it; but it will be seen by the extract from the Peking Gazette, printed in the N.C.D., that the Board of Revenue issued a sum of Tls. 500,000 of revenue for the payment of an appropriation for river works in Shantung, and when the agent of the Governor of Shantung went to the Board of Revenue to have the power of referring the matter to the Magistrate and the case should then be dealt with as any ordinary case. With these observations I beg to move the second reading of this Bill.

The Acting Colonial Secretary seconded Mr. Ryrie was understood to object to their being only Chinese Justice associated with the Registrar General, and to ask why one of the two justices should not be European.

His Excellency—That is a matter for the committee, if it is not affected by the principle of the Bill at all.

Mr. Ryrie did not like retrogradement and did not wish the Registrar General to have the power of a Court. The amendment just mentioned by the Acting Attorney General, however, practically gave the power to the Magistrate.

Mr. Mackown—Since this Bill was first introduced into this Council the members have had the opportunity of seeing the whole of the correspondence; and it has been interesting, more especially the report of Mr. Justice Russell, which I think states the case very clearly. I do not however gather from Mr. Russell's report that he proposes to confer the same distinct powers on the Registrar General as is given in this Bill. But after hearing the remarks of the Attorney General, with reference to the proposed amendment, I shall raise no objection to the second reading.

At the same time I think the Bill will have to be considerably altered in committee and more with reference to Section 6 which the learned Attorney General did not take into account. My attention has also been drawn to the fact by eminent Chinese that it would be very necessary that home should be provided, maintained by and under the supervision of the Government. There has been a great deal said outside with reference to the faulty construction of the Bill, but that the public may rest assured that, as his Honour the Chief Justice said at a former meeting he would probably have several amendments to make. Committee, before it receives the consideration of the Board of Revenue, is ordered to furnish an explanation.—N.C.D. News.

WRITING on the 21st December, the San Francisco correspondent of the N.C.D. News says:—We hear nothing of the doings of the Chinese Minister, who keeps himself secluded in "Stewart's folly" at Washington, and is painfully and not very satisfactorily acquiring a knowledge of American affairs. China does not do herself justice by allowing herself to be represented in foreign countries by gentlemen, who, whatever their virtues and accomplishments, have so little in common with men of business that it is impossible, so to speak, to lay up alongside of them, and enter into familiar intercourse. Mr. Belmont of the Committee on Foreign Affairs has announced his intention of calling the Chinese indemnity bill for Wyoming riots, to the exclusion of all other business. If this becomes a law, the $150,000 will be transferred from the treasury to the Chinese Government. Little is said of the expected amendments to the Restriction Act. The anti-Chinese fury is dying out here. At a meeting held here yesterday to revive the anti-Chinese League, less than twenty persons were present, and these were mostly scalawags, blatherskites, and agitators. On the other hand, the commencement of what may come to be a very important branch of trade was augured a few days ago by the shipment to Shanghai from this port, of a 16 stamp gold mill, intended to extract gold quantities which are said to be forty miles from tide water. It will be an excellent thing for China if she undertakes to exploit the gold mines which are known to abound in the northern provinces, and likewise in some of the southern; and it would not be a bad thing for San Francisco to have to supply such machinery. In ordinary warfare we could not compete with England, which is now shipping steel rails for railroad extension in this State, notwithstanding a protective duty of $17 a ton; but it chances that we can make better stamp mills here than they can in England, and thus we may get the business, though as Col. Denby writes, the Chinese would rather deal with anyone than with Californians. The Chinese Consul-General on Yang-tsing continues to drop. His death is reasonably certain, from consumption; unless he can be removed from this climate, and this his Government refuses to consent to.

MEETING OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

A meeting of the Legislative Council was held this afternoon. There were present: H. E. the Acting Governor (W. H. Marsh); Sir George Phillipps, Chief Justice; Hon. F. Stewart, Acting Colonial Secretary; Hon. E. J. Ackroyd, Acting Attorney General; Hon. A. Lister, Colonial Treasurer; Hon. J. M. Price, Surveyor General; Hon. H. G. Thossett, Harbour Master; Hon. F. Ryrie, Hon. A. P. MacEwen, Hon. Wong Shing, Hon. J. Bell Irving, Hon. C. P. Chater; and Mr. A. Seth (Clerk of Councils).

REPORTS.

The Acting Colonial Secretary laid on the table the annual report of the Headmaster of the Government Central School for 1886 (which was published this report two or three weeks ago) and a report of the approximate estimate of cost of contemplated public works. (This report will be found in another column.)

REMOVING BOATS AS TO AN ORDINANCE.

The Acting Attorney General moved the first reading of an Ordinance to remove boats as to the application of Ordinance No. 2 of 1875.

The Acting Colonial Secretary seconded and the Bill was read a first time.

THE BETTER PROTECTION OF GIRLS.

The Acting Attorney General—To renew my motion that the Bill for the better protection of young girls be read a second time. At the meeting of the Council at which the second reading of this Bill certain opposition was offered; but all the papers relating to this subject having since been published, I hope that the purport of these papers will remove from the mind of any Hon. Member of the Council any doubts as to what the real intention of the Government was in introducing this Bill. As I stated, it was introduced merely to put a stop to what was a very great abuse—the training up of young girls as prostitutes.

And it is really the only object the Government has in putting forward this Bill. Great objection has been taken to the power assigned to the Registrar General to respect to this measure. I beg to state that since making the motion for the second reading, I have received a certain suggestion upon the point; and, if this Bill is read a second time, I will, at the Committee, propose certain amendments which will curtail the power of the Registrar General, without, I hope, in any way affecting the object of the measure. I may mention the principal amendment will be this: That the Registrar General should have the power of summoning before him any person suspected of having any female child for this purpose, and should have the power also of summing witnesses; and if on hearing parties, and if the person summoned consents that the matter should be dealt with by the Registrar General, the Registrar General should then have the power of making an order requiring security. If there was any objection on the part of the party summoned that the matter should be thus dealt with by the Registrar General, the Registrar General should

THE GOVERNMENT CENTRAL SCHOOL REPORT.

The annual report of the Head Master of the Government Central School, which was laid on the table of the Legislative Council this afternoon, was, with the exception of three tables, published with the report of the proceedings at the distribution of prizes in the School on the 19th ultimo. Mr. Wright, the Head Master, on that occasion read the report, omitting the tables. The tables omitted are as follow:

YEAR	Number of Scholars	Number of School Days.	Month Max. Min.	Average Attenda-
1882.	577	341	448	372 500
1883.	556	230	409	378 304
1884.	533	230	409	378 305
1885.	610	230	407	437 445

Despite these defects, Miss Savory carried the sympathies of the audience throughout, and her singing in the trio "Ring the Merry Bells on Board" called forth a lusty ovation. She will no doubt be warmly welcomed on her next appearance, when, we believe, she will essay a part in which she is much more at home. Little Buttercup, the only other important lady's part in the opera, was portrayed by Miss L. Salinger in a way which kept the house vastly amused. Miss Salinger, like Miss Savory, is a young actress. She has an attractive presence, a clear and ringing voice, and a wonderful amount of vivacity. She has also considerable knowledge of her art and with further study she will turn out a first-rate actress. Here and the other cousins, sisters and aunts of the first Lord were accounted for by Miss Emma, Mrs. Salinger, &c.

The male parts were, on the whole, only fairly well filled. The most original and the cleverest impersonation was Mr. H. Salinger's representation of Dick Dæderick. He was, perhaps, not quite the most correct representation and at times was rather broad. But it was highly amusing, and fairly well filled. Part II. K-M ... $2.50
Part III. M-T ... $2.00
Part IV. T-Y ... $3.00

A Reduction of ten per cent. will be allowed to purchasers of Ten or more copies.

This Standard Work on the Chinese Language, constructed on the basis of Kangxi's Imperial Dictionary, contains all Chinese characters in practical use, and while alphabetically arranged according to the sounds of the oldest dialect of China, the Cantonese, it gives also the most prominent of all characters contained in the books so far published in no means confirms the Cantonese Dialect, but the work is a practically complete Thesaurus of the whole Written Language of China, approximate and modern, as used all over the Empire, whilst its introductory chapters
serve the purposes of a philological guide to the student.

A Supplement, arranged for being bound and used by itself, and containing a List of the Radicals, an Index, and a List of Surnames, is published separately.
